VISUAL CHECK

Photographic record of condition

A dated, timestamped photographic record of your property as it stood on the day, taken against a checklist agreed with you before the visit. It records what was there. It does not rate, judge or advise.

☐ VISUAL CHECK ☐ JOB CHECK ON A BOOKED JOB

Prepared by Monique Sewell-Bennett, seven years of UK construction and IoT project management, supplying professional services as a sole trader, 55 Remington Road, London N15 6SS. The checker who attends records and photographs. They do not rate what they see, give an opinion on it, or advise. If you want a view on what the photographs show, that is a Condition Report or a Technical Sign-off.

A. How to read this record

This is a record, not a report. The checker walked the property against the checklist agreed with you, photographed every item on it, and wrote down plainly what each photograph shows. There are no ratings, no opinions, and no advice in it, on purpose.

Each line carries one mark:

RECORDED	Photographed as agreed. The photograph numbers are written against it.
PART	Only part of it could be photographed. What was missed, and why, is written against it.
NO ACCESS	Could not be reached or seen. The reason is written against it.

"What the photographs show" is a plain description of what is in the frame, with the place and a size in words where it helps: "crack running from the top corner of the back door to the ceiling, rear wall". It is never a judgement such as "serious" or "nothing to worry about". Left and right are as you face the part being photographed; the front is the side facing the road. Every photograph is taken on the visit itself, with the device clock checked on arrival, and none is edited.

H. What this record is and is not

It is a photographic record of what could be seen, in the areas that could be reached, on the day and at the times above. It is not an inspection, a survey or an opinion on condition, it does not say whether anything is a defect or what it would cost to put right, and it is not a valuation, a structural, legal or boundary opinion, or insurance. Nothing was lifted, opened up, tested or moved.

Declaration

I attended the property on the date above. The photographs in this record were taken by me on that visit and have not been altered, and the descriptions are what the photographs show.

Reviewer. I have checked that this record covers the agreed checklist and that the descriptions match the photographs. I have added no opinion to it.
